The next annual term in this Department (now in its forty-fifth year) will begin October 21, 1878, and end March 8, 1879. The first three weeks will be devoted excitatively to Clinical Medicine, and Surgery and Practical Pathological Analomy in the Charity Hospital, and Practical Chemistry and Dissections at the College.

The Charity Hospital has 400 beds and an annual admission of more than air thousand patients, and offers unrivaled facilities for practical tenching. The students accompany the professors in their dally visits through the wards, and thus have the opportunity of studying discuses and accidents at the bedside of the patients. It is to this peculiar feature of the school that the Faculty call especial attention.

Fees—In view of the lacts above stated and the unusual amount of care and labor involved in the effort to render the course as complete as possible, the same fees are demanded as charged by the Schools of New York and Philadelphia, namely: Matriculation, S5; Lectures, S140; Practical Anatony, S10; Graduation, S30. Payments required in advance. For circulars, giving full details, address T. 6 HICHARD SON, M.D., Dean article used by the city is not only unjust and totally destructive to the well being of any corporation; and whereas, much of this enormous outlay might be curtailed by a thorough system of purchasing by contract; and whereas, the different heads of the various departments are not always presumed to be familiar with prices of commodities in their various departments, and consequently are compelled to be at the mercy of those from whom they purchase; therefore, therefore, Section 1. Be it ordained by the General Council of the city of Memphis. That all supplies, repairs or articles of any kind used in the various departments, shall be purchased or repaired as hereinafter ments, shall be purchased or repaired as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. Be if further ordained. That there shall be appointed a committee of three from the Common Council and twe from the Board of Aldermen, to be styled "Supply Committee," which shall be changed every three months, commencing with the passage of this ordinance, whose duty it shall be to examine all applications for supplies, repairs, etc., submitted by the heads of the various departments; they shall then proceed to purchase the same, or have said repairs made, by the lowest and most responsible bidder; provided, however, that all applications as above provided must first be approved by the various standing Committees to which they have been referred, and to which they properly belong.

Section 3. Be it further ordained. That all moneys coming in from the various departments of the city shall be set apart and credited to said departments as a special fund, only to be used in the purchase of supplies or repairs of said special department; provided that this ordinance shall not apply to general or privilege tax regularly made and provided for by law.
